

energy measures

fact file

12

Restaurants, cellars, food service and banqueting areas

Energy Efficiency in restaurants, cellars, food service and banqueting areas

This fact file will help you identify immediate opportunities for saving energy in these important public spaces. It will help you ensure that display space does not use unnecessary energy and ensure staff are following policies and procedures for energy efficiency.