

energy measures

fact file

15

Introduction to energy efficient technologies

Energy Efficient Technologies

This fact file is the first in the Investing in Technology series of fact files. It provides basic guidance to help hospitality managers decide when it is appropriate to make major investments in technologies. It also provides a simple checklist to ensure that your Hospitable Climates programme is up-to-date.