

energy measures

fact file

23

Design & Refurbishment

Design & Refurbishment

Major opportunities exist to maximise future energy efficiency savings during refurbishment and new build programmes. This fact file helps businesses to understand how and when energy efficiency considerations should be built into the design brief, helps managers to assess the costs of energy efficient design and introduces some of the new regulations that are setting the minimum standards for the UK.