

energy measures

fact file

27

Making the Most of Your Hospitable Climates Membership

The Fact File has been written to help Hospitable Climates users improve their profile with customers and key stakeholders, by demonstrating how to successfully publicise membership of the programme. It also provides advice on reporting on carbon emissions and ways to use Hospitable Climates membership to contribute to a business' overall Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) objectives.