

energy measures

fact file

29

Financial Incentives for Improving Energy Efficiency

Participants in Hospitable Climates frequently ask about the availability of financial incentives to support projects designed to improve energy efficiency, and what other sources of information there are for the general management of the environment. Fact File 29 lists some of the support currently available free-of-charge or at low cost.