

energy measures

fact file

7

Housekeeping & Guestrooms

Energy Efficiency in Housekeeping & Guestrooms

It is a myth that most of the energy used in hotels is consumed by guests. Because of the large base load (the amount of energy required to keep the hotel heated, provide basic catering requirements and so on), each guest adds only a relatively small additional load. This fact file will help you to work with your housekeeping team to minimise energy wastage in housekeeping and guest rooms.