

energy measures

fact file

8

Offices, Front of House and Public Areas

Energy Efficiency in Offices, Front of House and Public Areas

When implementing an energy efficiency programme, it is essential that managers practice what they preach. This fact file will help to ensure that offices, front of house areas and public areas of the business are energy efficient by:

- Identifying common areas of waste in these areas
- Investing in low cost technologies that will deliver immediate energy savings.